Criminal Revision No. 89 of 2003

Hon'ble P.C. Verma, A.C.J.

Heard Sri Navneet Kaushik, learned counsel for the revisionist and learned G.A.

This is a revision under section 57 of the Junivile Justice(Care and Protection of Children)Act, 2000. The sole grievance of the revisionist is that despite the revisionist being juvenile, he has not been released on bail under section 12 of the Act and no reason has been recorded that his release is likely to bring him into association with any known criminal or expose him to moral, physical or psychological danger or that his release would defeat the ends of justice.

Release of bail is rejected on the ground that earlier bail was rejected when the revisionist was not declared juvinile. The petitioner is in Observative Home. The C.J.M. concerned is directed to reconsider the case of the petitiner to release him on bail considering the ground of refusal of his bail as provided under section 12 of the Act. The provision of section 15 of the Act shall also be taken into account by the C.J.M. concerned.

With the aforesaid observations, the petition is finally disposed of.

(P.C.Verma, A.C.J.)
